Hello John,

No problem sharing what I know. My own story was also rised as to "corruption". About a year later they returned surprised and said that somehow all my loans are not gone bad!!! Like if I had approven anything myself. The action was initiated by the same persons who got me acquainted with them at first place. This particular person is former (maybe) high ranking KGB - polkovnik. The reason getting me blaimed was that I declined him a clearly bad loan.

I'm not sure their influence to the economy is as strong as it might have been earlier, but their connections to russian govnt. and so called "Jeltsin package" have always been suspected.

To my knowledge in the top of the bank there are more than few high ranking KGB persons, whos connections to this organisation we can not prove indeed.

I don't carry a crudge or anything against them. Like spoken, if I can help, let me know.

Sad that things turn out like this some times.

I'd be glad to see You! I'm traveling a lot lately so You never know.

Best regards,

Ardi
